Chapter 1: The Commission

1.1 Our Vision and Mission Statement

Our vision is for a just, fair and efficient legal system for a peaceful society based on democratic principles and the rule of law and the advancement of the nation's economic and social interest.

Our mission therefore is to provide Government with high level independent advice on constitutional and other law reform and promote community understanding of the law and the legal system in Papua New Guinea.

1.2 Establishment and Structure

Provision for the establishment of the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission are made in Section 21 (2) and Schedule 2.13 of the Constitution. The Constitutional and Law Reform Commission (CLRC) was established in March 2005 soon after the enactment of the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission Act, (No. 24 of 2004) by the National Parliament on 24 November 2004.

CLRC is a successor by law to the now abolished Law Reform Commission, and is merger with the now abolished Constitutional Development Commission (CDC) and the Law Reform Commission.

The Commission comprises of one (1) Chairman and six (6) part- time Commissioners. The Office of the Chairman is a full-time office. The part-time members consist of two (2) serving Members of Parliament, an expert in Constitutional Law, an expert in anthropology, sociology and political science, a representative of Papua New Guinea Council of Churches, and the Executive Dean of the School of Law of the University of Papua New Guinea as ex officio. Formal educational qualification is desirable, but not essential for appointment as a Commissioner. All members, must, however be PNG citizens.

Under Section 5 of the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission Act, the Commissioners are appointed by the Minister for Justice for a term not exceeding four (4) years with eligibility for re-appointment.

However, where the business of the Commission requires, the Commission may, in addition to the statutory meetings, convene further meetings as special meetings, which must not be more than four (4) in any one year.

During the year 2007, the Commission held four (4) statutory meetings. The first two Commissioners' Meetings were presided over by the former Chairman, Dr. Allan Marat and the two subsequent meetings were held under the Chairmanship of the current Chairman, Hon. Joe Mek Teine, MP.

They are officers or employees of the Public Service. As and when the need arises, Section 21 (2) of the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission Act 2004 allows for the Commission to appoint other persons on contract for the purposes of the Commission.

1.7 Approved Restructure

In the first quarter of 2007, a review was made of the organisational structure with the intention of having a flat structure with greater focus on legal research capacity enhancement that would respond to effective delivery of CLRC mandated mission and vision – the provisions of high level independent advice on constitutional and other law reform to Government and promote community awareness and understanding of the laws and legal system of Papua New Guinea.

In accordance with Sections 33 and 34 of the Public Services (Management) Act 1998 (as amended), the Secretary, Department of Personnel Management have granted approval for the Organizational Structure for the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission which now consists of the Office of the Secretary who will report directly to the Chairman and Commissioners, Deputy Secretary, Director – Research and Publication, Director – Constitution, Director – Advisory and Draft. ## Chapter 2: Functions, Powers & Privileges

2.1. Functions

The main functions of the Commission are to review the workings of the Constitution and the Organic Laws and the other laws with a view to their systematic development and reform. Section 12 of the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission Act sets out in detail the functions of the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission. Constitutional law references are issued by the Head of State acting on advice and references on other laws and issues are issued by the Minister for Justice.

The Commission in the exercise of its powers and functions is required by Section 13 of its Act to be guided by the fundamental principles and policies laid down by Parliament.

2.2. Special Responsibility for Development of the Underlying Law

In addition to its other functions and responsibilities under any law, Schedule 2.14 of the Constitution gives the Constitutional and Law Reform Commission a special responsibility to investigate into and report to Parliament through the National Executive Council on the development of the underlying law and on the appropriateness of the rules and principles of the underlying law to the circumstances of the country from time to time.

Under Section 13 of the Underlying Law Act 2000 (No.12 of 2000), the Chairman of the Commission is given the authority to apply to the National Court to review any decision of the lower courts which may not be considered to be in the best interest of the development of the underlying law.

2.3. Special References to the Supreme Court

The Constitutional and Law Reform Commission is one of the authorities under Section 19 of the Constitution to make Special References to the Supreme Court on any question relating to the interpretation or application of a Constitutional Law, as well as to the validity of a law or proposed law.

2.4. Powers and Privileges

In the exercise of its functions under Section 12 - to inquire into and review the workings of the Constitution and Organic Laws and investigate and report on reference from the Minister for Justice on any matters of law, the Commission has the following powers under Section 11 of the Act:

- (a) consult with –
- any Government Department; or
  - any Government institution, authority, organization, instrumentality or body; or
  - any other institution, organization or body that, in the opinion of the Commission, would be affected by any proposed change in a law; or
  - any member of the public; and
- (b) provide advice and information to any government department or provincial institution, authority, organization, instrumentality or body concerned with proposals for the reform or amendment of a law; and
- (c) consider any proposal for the reform of a law that is referred to it; and
- (d) hold seminars and conferences on appropriate legal issues; and
- (e) undertake research and study programs in order to provide itself with material on which to base its recommendations on law reform matters, particularly in the field of customary law; and
- (f) use any information, advice or assistance available to it from any source whether within or outside the government; and
- (g) obtain information on laws and legal systems of other countries as a means of providing ideas for the reform and development of the laws of Papua New Guinea; and
- (h) do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

Furthermore, the Commission has power to conduct such inquiries as it thinks proper, and for this purpose it has all the powers, authorities, protections and immunities conferred on a Commissioner under the Commissioners of Inquiry Act Chapter 8. These powers are considerable.

Chapter 3: An Overview of the Commission's Work in 2007

3.1 For all practical purposes pertaining to the core business of the Commission's legislated mandate, 2007 was the first year that the organisation functioned as a law reform agency.

We commenced the year on a high note with a high profile visit to us by the President of the Australian Law Reform Commission, Emeritus Professor David Weisbrot AM and Ms Lani Blackman, Research Manager, Australian Law Reform Commission, from Monday, 26th February, 2007 to Friday, 2nd March, 2007. This visit was made at the invitation of the former Chairman, Hon. Dr. Allan Marat MP. During their one week visit to us, they ran several training workshops for staff of the CLRC on various aspects of conducting an inquiry into a reference and managing the references.

Professor Weisbrot conducting the training.

3.2 We completed two references in 2007 – being:

- CLRC Reference No. 1 – Review of Committal Proceedings; and
- CLRC Reference No. 2 – Review of Indictable Offences Triable Summarily.

Work on these two references commenced in March 2007 and the following outcome were achieved:

- Issues Papers (X2) were released in April 2007;

- Draft Reports (X2) were released in June 2007; and
- Reports (X2) were released in August, 2007.

Soon after the release of the Issues Papers national consultations were conducted through out the country with the assistance of the respective Working Committee members in the months of April and May. It was based on these consultations that the Draft Reports were framed. Soon after the release of the Draft Reports, a public seminar was held to discuss the recommendations in the Draft Reports in June 2007. The seminars were co-hosted with the PNG Law Society. The seminars were very well attended by lawyers and the general public. Hon. Justice Mogish attended the seminar and actively participated – for which we are extremely grateful.

We are also extremely grateful for the support we received from the Public Solicitor, acting Public Prosecutor and the Chief Magistrate and his Magistrates and Clerks of Courts in working with us on these two references. In fact the Chief Magistrate and his magistrates very actively participated in the process leading up to the finalisation of the two reports.

3.3 In August 2007, we then commenced work on CLRC Reference No. 5 – Review of Incorporated Land Groups and Design of a System of Voluntary Customary Land Registration. This reference was issued by the former Minister for Justice, Hon. Bire Kimisopa on 4th July, 2007. Since this reference was issued to implement certain recommendations arising from the National Land Development Task Force Report that was released in 2006, there was no Issues Paper produced.

The Draft Report was released in October 2007 and following that a public seminar was then organised in collaboration with the PNG Law Society and the National Research Institute on the 30th November 2007 at the Granville Motel at which the Draft Report was reviewed and discussed. The Seminar was well attended and NBC Karai Radio carried it live.

The Land Development Seminar was held at Granville Motel on the 30th November 2007 to deliberate on the report.

- 3.4 In the first quarter of 2007, we also established the CLRC Website: www.clrc.gov.pg. All of our above mentioned reports are now posted on this website.
- 3.5 In 2007, we also collaborated with other institutions, both nationally and internationally on various work programs. Nationally, we worked with the Intellectual Property Office (IPO) PNG on a joint working paper on collective management organisations regulations to implement certain aspects of the Copyrights and Neighboring Rights Act 2000 and the Village Courts Secretariat of the Department of Justice & Attorney Generals to review and revise the Village Courts Act. Internationally, we participated in the Pacific Land Program established by AusAID to provide technical assistance to Pacific Island Countries (PICs) in developing their customary land reform programs similar to the one in Papua New Guinea.
- 3.6 In the last quarter of 2007, we also commenced preparatory work to give us background information to inform our review of the Organic Law on Provincial and Local Level Governments. Five provinces were covered in this exercise – for their own peculiar reasons – being: East Sepik; Eastern Highlands; Southern Highlands; Morobe; New Ireland and Gulf.

3.7 Conference, Workshops and Seminars.

- The Australian Law Reform Commission (ALRC) President Professor Weisbrot and the ALRC Director of Research Ms Lani Blackman visited the CLRC and provided training workshops to CLRC Staff on the 27th to 28 February 2007.

Prof Weisbrot and Ms Blackman at the workshop with CLRC staff

- Information & Publication Officer, Ms Fo'oa Opa and Senior Executive Assistant, Angela Anis, attended the workshop on Electronic Records Module 3 in Lae on the 27 – 31 August 2007.
- The Secretary, Dr. Lawrence Kalinoe, attended the conference: PNG's Prospects for Sustainable Development at the Divine Word University, Madang on August, 14th 2007. A report on this conference can be found in Chapter 6 of this report.

He gave an address on the topic: "Social Work and Human Rights – Reflection on Contemporary Issues" and addressed the tension between human rights and traditional customs, their constitutional law dimensions; polygamy and brideprice.

- Mr Tau Kamuta attended the International Association of Insolvency Regulators (IAIR) Annual General Meeting & Conference, in Bangkok, Thailand. The IAIR Annual Meeting and Conference was held at the Conrad Hotel, Bangkok from Monday 3rd to 5th September, 2007. Mr Kamuta attended this conference with Mr. Paul Wagun, the Public Curator, of the Department of Justice and Attorney General. His report is in Chapter 6 of this report.

Chapter 5: Future Directions

5.1 The current Chairman, Hon. Joe Mek Teine, LL.B MP endorses the mission and vision statement of the CLRC as stated at paragraph 1.1 of this report. Furthermore, the Chairman endorses the views of the former Chairman on the future directions of the CLRC as captured at Chapter 5 of the 2006 Annual Report at pages 19-28. For the immediate future though, the Chairman would like to have the following issues given urgent consideration.

5.2 Review of Laws on Inter – Tribal Fighting

In the Highlands of Papua New Guinea, tribal fighting is becoming too common where people use the tribal fight as a means of settling disputes. In more recent times, there is now a new twist– where, instead of bows and arrows being traditionally used as weapons in these fights, high powered guns are now used and it is getting deadlier than ever before. There is now an urgent need to review the laws on inter group fighting and tighten up on penalties.

5.3 Drugs and Substance Abuse

One of the social evil that affect most young people in PNG is illicit drugs. Drugs use involving marijhuna, home brew and steam, etc are reaching unprecedented levels. We must now review our laws in this area and enact appropriate laws to address this serious problem affecting our society.

5.4 Review of the Organic Law on Provincial and Local Level Governments (OLPGLLG)

This constitutional law needs urgent attention for review to make it more responsive and workable in view of the problems we have encountered as a nation in the last 10 years.

Chapter 6: Miscellaneous

In this part of the report, we report on conferences, workshops and seminars which staff and commissioners have attended in 2007.

6.1 International Association of Insolvency Regulators (LAIR) Annual General Meeting & Conference – Report

Mr Tau Kamuta, Acting Director, Legal Drafts, attended the International Association of Insolvency Regulators (IAIR) Annual General Meeting & Conference, in Bangkok, Thailand. The IAIR Annual Meeting and Conference was held at the Conrad Hotel, Bangkok from Monday 3rd to 5th September, 2007. Mr Kamuta attended this conference with Mr. Paul Wagun, the Public Curator, of the Department of Justice and Attorney General. All associated costs were jointly met by the Office of the Public Curator and the CLRC.

About the LAIR

The International Association of Insolvency Regulators (IAIR) is an association comprising of government bodies responsible for insolvency policy, regulation or practice in their own countries. There are 23 member countries around the world. Papua New Guinea has an observer status in the IAIR. The indications are that PNG may become a full member in 2008.

IAIR members meet annually at a combined Conference and Annual General Meeting.

At these meetings, members:

- exchange information;
- report on recent developments in their jurisdiction;
- exchange in discussion about current thinking in relation to:
  - insolvency policy and legislation;
  - practice and administration;
  - regulatory issues

at both the national and international level; and

- consider topics for detailed study and approve study reports.

Observers from non-member countries like PNG, are invited to attend and contribute to discussions.

The conference run for three days and include social events arranged by host countries. These events provide excellent networking opportunities and assist with the development of bilateral and multilateral relationships.

External speakers are also invited to address conference sessions on topics of interest to members and observers. This year's conference included speakers from the World Bank and OECD.

Wider IAIR Member Roles

The objectives of IAIR include liaising with other bodies and constituencies on common insolvency issues.

Members are often involved in a working group that develop the Statement of Principles for Regulatory Frameworks as part of the World Bank's Principles and Guidelines for Effective Insolvency and Creditor Rights Systems; and take part in regional workshops held by the Bank for developing economies.

The next step in this initiative is the development of a Regulator's Toolkit to provide a practical guide to the design and implementation of regulatory frameworks. IAIR is coordinating detailed procedure and practice information from members' different systems of regulation of private sector insolvency administration.

Individual members frequently host visits from other governments looking at introducing or revising their insolvency legislation and regulation.

Observations

The PNG Insolvency Act 1951, is perhaps out-dated and needs to be reviewed to incorporate recent developments in insolvency legislation and regulation from jurisdictions like New Zealand and Australia. The collapse of some corporate giants like HIH, Ansett Airways, Onetel, just to name a few, has given rise to law reform in insolvency laws in New Zealand and Australia.

In the case of PNG's insolvency laws, the collapse of, for example, Workers Mutual Insurance Limited (WMI), presents us with an opportunity to do law reform in this field.

6.2 PNG and Pacific Music Copyright Summit

The Secretary, Dr. Lawrence Kalinoe, attended the Papua New Guinea & Pacific Music Copyright Summit, 25th – 26th July, 2007 – Brisbane: This is a brief highlight of the summit.

The Papua New Guinea & Pacific Music Copyright Summit was held at the Judith Wright Centre, Brisbane from 25th to 26th July, 2007. It was organized by the Australian Performing Right Association (APRA) and the Australian Mechanical Copyright Owners Society (AMCOS) (hereafter APRA/AMCOS) with funding assistance from WIPO to assist the GoPNG and other Pacific Island Countries (PIC) states to move towards promulgation of relevant legislation to set up Collective Management Organizations (CMOs) for their artists, musicians, songwriters, performers, etc. to protect their interests and collect their royalties. Apart from the individual artists who attended in their personal capacities, official delegates attended were from Tonga, Fiji, Vanuatu, Western Samoa, Solomon Islands and of course PNG. The representatives from the various GoPNG organizations were from Intellectual Property Office PNG (IPOPNG); National Cultural Commission; Institute of PNG Studies and myself from the CLRC. The CHM Supersound Studios made a very strong presentation through its Music Manager, Richard Francisco and CEO Raymond Chin CBE. The Summit was organized over two days but I attended the second day only and participated in the round table discussions on the next steps for establishing PNG Composer Society.

The Summit coincided with the Queensland Music Festival and several of our musicians including George Telek and Tony Subam attended.

Concerns raised by the PNG Delegates

Some of the PNG delegates, notably CHM Supersound Studios representatives raised concerns that the promulgation of the regulations to set up Collective Management Organizations (CMOs) and mobilize artists, musicians, songwriters, performers and mechanical copyright owners (studios, etc.) was too slow. Mr Tom Vere, Copyright Officer, IPO PNG informed the summit that the draft regulations have been sent out for comments and they are nearing finalizations. Some delegates (CHM Supersound in particular) complained that they have not seen the Draft Regulations and requested for copies so that they can have the opportunity to comment on it. Scot Morris, Director APRA/AMCOS, also requested for a copy of the draft regulations to enable APRA/AMCOS to also give its input. I became concerned that perhaps we (IPO PNG in particular) did not perhaps widely consult and it was apparent that the CLRC should assist IPO PNG to engage in a wider national consultation by publicly releasing the draft regulations and holding a seminar to discuss the draft regulations.

The Opportunities for PNG Artists & Others

The CMO regulations were necessary to provide the legal framework for the PNG artists and recording studios since the copyrights legislations (the Copyright and Neighboring Rights Act 2000) only provides for copyrights protection without the mechanisms to enable artists to be organized and paid their royalty payments. The CMO regulations will pave the way for our artists to organize themselves, perhaps under an umbrella organization like APRA/AMCOS and then collect royalties for all the member artists whose work can be used by broadcasters and such others. This will provide an opportunity for our artists to be rewarded for their various copyright work. With establishment of our own CMOs and their association with APRA/AMCOS our artist will greatly benefit from the opportunities within the region and the world over.

Up to now, our artists are not adequately rewarded for their copyright work due to the lack of CMOs etc. to protect and pursue their interests. We need to quickly move with the necessary regulations to enable our artists to organize themselves into CMOs and benefit from their copyrights as composers, musicians, performers, recorders, etc.. Generally, the establishment of CMOs will also create job opportunities for other Papua New Guineans as well.

Offer of Assistance by APRA/AMCOS

APRA/AMCOS have offered their assistance to assist us with the organizations of artists and the establishment of a CMO. APRA is a non-profit company limited by guarantee founded in 1926 to administer performing rights in music upon the advent or radio broadcasting in Australia. AMCOS is also a company limited by guarantee founded in 1979 to protect and administer the interest of mechanical copyrights owners – the recording labels/studios who have copy right over the recorded music, etc. As of July, 1st 1979 APRA/AMCOS entered into an operational alliance to share resources and attain costs efficiencies where they have now developed a copyright management system with joint databases and agreement files/electronic clearance facility with joint licenses for new media and electronic reporting and auto-matching system.

They have offered to bring their skills, systems and software to assist us in establishing our CMOs. At the Summit, Scot Morris, Director APRA/AMCO kept reminding us that we need not re-invent the wheel. We just needed to ask them to assist us. Fiji has requested them to assist them and they have moved in and set up the Fijian Performers Rights Association (FPRA) and there was a separate presentation at the Summit on how the FPRA was now operating. That was also very encouraging. All Papua New Guinea delegates agreed that we must not let this opportunity go. We should, through our relevant GoPNG body such as IPO PNG, officially request for APRA/AMCO technical assistance with funding assistance from WIPO.

Pacific Copyright Management System

The Copyright Management System (CMS) Pacific was developed by APRA/AMCOS with an Auckland (NZ) based radio station to:

- maintain and develop an author active database of local Pacific Musical Works and their copyright owners;
- accurately interpret, process and match the reporting of the use of music;
- allocate, calculate and distribute royalty payments to the copyright owners both locally and around the world; and
- manage the licensing of music users.

CMS Pacific is continually developed, maintained and supported by APRA. It provides a costs efficient system for small markets by building upon extensive existing data bases of Pacific Works and boasts of a proven collective rights management software developed specifically for our region. Furthermore, this system removes the need for IT development and maintenance costs. With the database based in Sydney, a copy of the CMS Pacific Software can be downloaded through the internet and installed locally in the recipient country of the Pacific.

A presentation was made on the second day of the Summit on how the CMS Pacific System works and it was very impressive. APRA insisted that this System is available for our consideration and adoption/adaptation and that we need not have to re-invent the wheel.

Note: Since returning from this conference, the CLRC has collaborated with IPO PNG to facilitate a wider consultation process to discuss the draft regulations and eventually have them promulgated. This will now continue into 2008.

6.3 Conference Report: PNG's Prospect for Sustainable Development Forum, Divine Word University, Madang, August 14th to 17th, 2007

The Secretary, Dr. Lawrence Kalinoe, attended this conference. Here is an edited version of his report:

Introduction

The conference, PNG's Prospects for Sustainable Development, was a forum organized by the Divine Word University and was supported by various mining companies, environmental NGOs and other business houses. It attracted a lot of international and national speakers spread over a four days tight program. I only attended the first day of the conference.

Theme of the Conference

The central theme of the Conference was to discuss ways and approaches to sustainable development of PNG's natural resources with a focus on the need to develop a national sustainable development policy framework and plan consistent with the National Goals and Directive Principle No. 4 of the PNG Constitution and the more recent international initiatives such as the 1990 World Conference on Environment and Development which set out with a mission to promote sustainable development at the regional and national levels, followed by the:

- Johannesburg Plan of Implementation (JPOI) in 2002; and
- Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Program of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States (Mauritius Strategy) – which called upon member countries to develop national development strategies to pursue sustainable development programs and plan of action.

Speakers

There were national and international speakers of repute and standing like Sir Peter Barter Kt OBE; Mr Paul Barker, Executive Director of INA; Dr. Pak Sum Low of the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for the Asia Pacific (UNESCAP); His Excellency Chris Moraitis, Australian High Commissioner to PNG; Prof. Richard Steiner from the University of Alaska; Prof. Bryant Allen of the ANU; Dr. Eric Kwa from the UPNG Law School; Techa Beumont from the Mineral Policy Institute, Australia; Dr. Wari Iamo, Secretary, Department of Environment and Conservation; a delegation from the New Caledonia Customary Senate and many others.

Brief on Day One (1) Sessions

Since, I attended the first day only of the conference, I briefly report on the first day proceedings only. The theme of the first day was: Introduction and Economic Impact – Understanding Sustainable Development and Economic Impact. The President of the Divine Word University, Father Jan Czuba gave a welcome address and also issued a challenge to the conference to be purposeful and constructive in the presentations and to eventually come out with a clear plan of action towards a national sustainable development plan so that we can as a nation be consciously mindful in our planning and decision making processes towards wise and sustainable natural and other resource use and consumption. Mr Samuel Peter, a lecturer in Environmental Sciences from the UPNG was the first speaker – speaking on the need for PNG to produce a National Assessment Report that would provide the national framework for national sustainable development as required under the Johannesburg Plan of Implementation (JPOI) and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Program of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States and further requested by the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UNDESA) and the UN Commission for Sustainable Development (CSD). Dr. Eric Kwa of the Law School, UPNG, was the next speaker. He spoke on the policy and legal framework situation in PNG and concluded that neither the Medium Term Development Strategy (MTDS) 2005-2010 nor applicable legislation such as the Environment Act 2000 adequately provides for a clear sustainable development policy and law. He then called for specific legislation embracing the principles of sustainable development for natural resources extraction and exploitation to be introduced and to bring PNG to comply with the various international law principles on sustainable development as now found in documents like the UN Commissioned 1983 Brundtland Report and the 1990 Rio Declarations, etc.

The next speaker was Ms Rebecca Iwerks, a Program Coordinator with the Revenue Watch Institute. She spoke on the “Publish-What-You-Pay-Coalition”-which promotes the concepts of revenue transparency and budget transparency for countries and companies involved in the extractive industry to provide transparent transactions and accountability. She argued for the importance of implementing a standard audit mechanism for bringing transparency to revenue from oil, minerals and gas in Papua New Guinea. There was then a tea break.

After the tea break, Mr Paul Barker, Director of the Institute of National Affairs, was the next speaker. He generally presented a broad picture of the economic status of extractive natural resources industries in PNG in the last 5 years.

Following him, Sir Peter Barter spoke on the need for political stability in PNG and the need for administrative capacity to ensure effective and sustainable delivery of services.

Dr. Pak Sum Low, Adviser on Environment and Sustainable Development, UNESCAP, then gave a very entertaining presentation focusing on eco-efficiency and eco-effectiveness – being efficient use of natural resources with the least environmental impacts during production and consumption. This process was generally described as “green-growth”. Following this address, there was then a lunch break. After lunch, there was a panel discussion session with four delegates from the New Caledonia Customary Senate on the mining experiences in New Caledonia. Generally the experiences are very similar to those in Papua New Guinea.

6.4 Pacific Land Program – Case Studies Peer Review Meeting – Report

Dr. Lawren Kalinoe, Secretary, was invited by the Pacific Land Program to participate in a peer review exercise to review five (5) case studies papers which were written for the Pacific Land Program. This peer review meeting was held at the Watermark Hotel, Brisbane from Monday 20th – Tuesday 21st August 2007. The Pacific Land Program met all associated costs relating to his participation in the peer review meeting. The following is a brief from the meeting.

Pacific Land Program

The Pacific Land Program is an AusAid program emanating from the Pacific 20/20 Vision Statement that was released in 2006. The Pacific Land Program is aimed at supporting customary land reform programs in the region to draw on each others experiences and to develop and manage acceptable, successful and sustainable customary land reform and development programs given the fact that land is a key factor of production and growth in the economic life of a nation.

Peer Review Meeting

There were five (5) case study papers reviewed at the meeting. They are:-

1. The System of Land Dispute Settlement in Papua New Guinea – by Norm Oliver and Jim Fingleton;
2. Training and Educating Land professionals in PNG, Fiji and Laos – by Chris Lunnay;
3. Land Registration Among the Tolai people – by Jim Fingleton and Oswald Tolopa;
4. Informal Land Systems within Urban Settlements in Honiara and Port Moresby – by Satish Chand and Charles Yala; and
5. Incorporated Land Groups in PNG and Australia – by Tony Power and Patrick Sullivan.

The peer review exercise was conducted over a period of two (2) days. On the first day, three (3) papers were reviewed. The remaining two (2) papers were reviewed on the second day. The order of proceedings of these meetings were that the authors first presented the papers before the peer review panel and the panel members then commented and critiqued the papers suggesting appropriate improvements to the papers. The peer review panel comprised the following:

- John Munro, Adviser Pacific Land Program, AusAid;
- Dr. Jim Fingleton, Land Development Consultant, Australia;

- Oswald Tolopa, Director of Policy, Department of Lands and Physical Planning, PNG;
- Norm Oliver, Land Consultant, Australia;
- Associate Professor, Satish Shand, ANU, Australia;
- Dr. Charles Yala, ANU/NRI, PNG;
- Tony Power, Land Consultant, PNG;
- Patrick Sullivan, Visiting Research Fellow, Australian Institute for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies, Canberra, Australia;
- Chris Cunnary, Land Consultant, Australia;
- Dr. Lawrence Kalinoe, Secretary CLRC, PNG;
- Kaluwin Potuan, PNG Chamber of Commerce, PNG;
- Lillian Holland, New Britain Palm Oil, PNG;
- Max Kep, Director Office of Urbanization, PNG;
- Padma Lal, Pacific Island Forum Secretariat, Fiji;
- Anna Naupa, Senior Program Officer, AusAid Port Vila, Vanuatu; and
- Dr. Theo Levantis, Economic Advisor, AusAid Canberra, Australia.

The Pacific Land Program does not intend to duplicate the various national land programs such as the PNG Land Program which has been established by a NEC Decision in 2006 to implement the recommendations from the National Land Development Task Force Report published as NRI Monograph 39 in 2006. The CLRC is currently through CLRC Reference No.5: Review of Incorporated Land Groups and Design of a System of Voluntary Customary Land Registration – implementing some aspects of the National Land Development Task Force Report relating to customary land development.
